EVENT RESERVATION REQUEST Procedures

St. Christopher Parish receives many requests for use of space for meetings and events. We are happy to assist in meeting your needs as much as possible. To ensure that all requests are given due consideration, we have instituted these procedures.

1. The person completing the Request should check with the Parish Office to see whether a desired location and date are scheduled. Reservations will not be recorded in the appropriate calendar until the Request is formally approved as outlined in these procedures.
 Note: – The Parish calendar, covering the church spaces, meeting rooms and Parish Hall, is maintained in the Parish office.
2. All information on the Request needs to be completed, and the applicant must sign the Request. The completed Request should then be forwarded to the Parish Secretary if using a parish space.
3. Once received by the Parish Secretary, the Request will be directed for review in a timely manner by the following St. Christopher staff:
 Pastor
 Director of Evangelization
4. Copies of an approved Request will be distributed by the Parish Secretary to other appropriate parties, including Religious Education Office or Maintenance Office.
5. Parish Secretary will finalize Request in the parish calendar and file it in reservations binder.
6. Approval or denial will be communicated by Parish Secretary based on space being requested and where request originated.
